

PSG POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE, COIMBATORE – 641 004

NCC NAVAL WING INAUGURATION CEREMONY

PSG Polytechnic College inaugurated the 2(TN) Naval Unit Madurai NCC-SD & SW, Troop No. 1106/22-FSFS on 31.10.2022 at 10.30 AM. Cdr. Amit Kumar Sharma from INS Agrani, Coimbatore was the Chief Guest. The event began with the Tamizh Thai Vaazthu.

Dr.V. Mohan Sivakumar delivered the welcome address in which he briefed about the various service wings of PSG Polytechnic College and the activities undertaken so far.

Dr. B. Giriraj, Principal in his presidential address highlighted the long history of the campus and the achievements of the alumni who were one part of NCC. He also insisted on the discipline that can be inculcated in the students through the service wings like NCC. He mentioned about the initiation of the Naval Wing after 70 years since the previous initiation.

Dr B Giriraj, Principal then felicitated the guest Commander Amit Kumar Sharma, INS Agrani, Coimbatore. The various academic and career achievements of the Chief Guest was summarized and presented to the audience.

Commander Amit Kumar Sharma in his Inaugural address quoted John C. Maxwell “A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way”. He interacted with students regarding the various opportunities available in the Indian Defence services for youngsters and how the interpersonal skills and qualities may be developed by being part of student service wings. He also insisted on maintaining the students’ health that is essential for a healthy mind. No physical differences should prevent a student from moving towards one’s aspirations.

He congratulated the management of PSG Polytechnic College for supporting such kind of wings and the student’s cadets who performed the drill. The event concluded with the NCC Song followed by the National Anthem.

VIDEO LINK: <https://youtu.be/xBwMxpq4ff0>

